Self-Employment Tax on Self-Employment (SE) income

Self-Employment (SE) income generally includes nonemployee compensation, merchant card, third party network payments, and other income from part-time or full-time work and is subject to Self-Employment Tax. We figured the Self-Employment Tax on the net SE income reported on your return and/or on the underreported SE income.

Self-Employment Tax consists of Social Security Tax of 10.4% and Medicare Tax of 2.9%. (Even if you have paid the maximum amount of Social Security Tax, you are still liable for additional Medicare Tax.) The deductible part of the Self-Employment Tax is based on the change we made to your Self-Employment Tax. If you were an employee, you will be liable for income tax and the employee's share of Social Security (4.2%) and Medicare taxes (1.45%). Your social security account will be credited with the amount of Self-Employment income shown on this notice.

Negative taxable income

The taxable income per return (TXI) on this notice differs from your original return. This notice reflects the actual amount of your taxable income to ensure proper credit for deductions and exemptions.

Form W-2 or 1099 not received

The law requires you to report your income correctly. If your payers did not send you a yearly income statement (Form W-2, Form 1099, etc.), you must use the information you have (pay stubs, monthly income statements, deposit slips, etc.) to estimate the total amount of income you received during the year.

Misidentified income

If any of the income shown on this notice is not yours, send us the name, address, and social security number of the person who received the income. Please notify the payers to correct their records to show the name and social security number of the person who actually received the income, so that future reports to us are accurate.

Social Security benefits for taxpayers who filed Married Filing Separately

If you were married and filed separately, but lived with your spouse at any time during 2011, the taxable social security benefits reported on your tax return may be incorrect because you can't deduct a base amount from total income. For more information, please see the Form 1040 instructions on social security benefits, or Publication 915, Social Security Benefits and Equivalent Railroad Retirement Benefits.

Social Security or Tier 1 Railroad Retirement benefits

Our notice includes Social Security or Railroad Retirement benefits. These benefits are partially taxable if your modified adjusted gross income, plus 50% of the gross benefits, exceeds the following:

- $25,000 if filing Single, Head of Household, Qualifying Widow(er), or Married Filing Separately and you did not live with your spouse at any time during the year.
- $32,000 if Married Filing Jointly; or
- $0 if Married Filing Separately and you lived with your spouse at any time during the year.

If the underreported items that cause the adjusted gross income to increase are found to be reported, the taxable Social Security/Tier 1 Railroad Retirement Benefits will be adjusted accordingly.

Next steps

- You don't need to file an amended tax return for 2011. We will make the correction when we receive your response. However, if you choose to file an amended tax return (Form 1040X), write "CP2000" on the top of your amended federal tax return (Form 1040X) and attach it behind your completed Response form. Go to www.irs.gov to download Form 1040X or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).
- Please file an amended tax return (Form 1040X) for any other tax years in which the same error occurred.
- We send information about these changes to state and local tax agencies, so if the changes we made apply, file an amended state or local tax return as soon as possible.

Interest charges

We are required by law to charge interest on unpaid tax from the date the tax return was due to the date the tax is paid in full. The interest is charged as long as there is an unpaid amount due, including penalties, if applicable. (Internal Revenue Code section 6601)

Description	Amount
Total Interest	$187

The table below shows the rates used to calculate the interest on your unpaid amount from the date the tax return was due until the tax is paid in full. For a detailed calculation of your interest, call 1-800-829-3009.

Period	Interest rate
Beginning October 1, 2011	3%
