

Did you know...

...The US may be the only country in the world where people working in the non-federal private sector must commit perjury in order to owe and pay 'God's things to Caesar'?

If you work in the private sector, stop falsely swearing that your private-sector earnings are federal "income"¹. Perjury is a crime. Exercise the law's provision for protecting your private-sector earnings from the 154-year-old² indirect excise known as the federal income tax. Rebut fraudulent allegations made by your payers regarding the legal nature of your work and the earnings derived therefrom, so that you pay only your fair share. Join the hundreds of thousands of honest, law-abiding Americans who have been doing so for more than a decade. Learn how for free at losthorizons.com.

1--"We must reject... ..the broad contention submitted in behalf of the government that all receipts—everything that comes in—are income...".

United States Supreme Court, So. Pacific v. Lowe, 247 U.S. 330, (1918)

2—The income tax in the United States was first instituted into law on July 1, 1862, during Lincoln's presidency under the excise laws of the United States. The preamble to the 1939 Internal Revenue Code traces its roots to this original income tax law.
