

ONLY IN AMERICA Threatened with Jail for Refusing to Lie!

Court Watchers Unite

Doreen Hendrickson, wife of Pete Hendrickson, author of Cracking the Code- The Fascinating Truth About Taxation In America, has a court hearing set for :

Thursday, April 9, 2015, 12:00 pm
231 W. Lafayette, Detroit, 2nd floor, Victoria Roberts courtroom for sentencing on a contempt of court charge

This is a case of retaliation against Doreen's husband for his book, which clearly defines the difference between taxable income and earnings that are not taxable under the IRS Code. Though numerous attempts have been made to discredit and suppress the book, especially through deliberate misrepresentation of its contents by government officials, nothing actually revealed in the book has ever been disputed.

How low must our overlords, posing as government, go? Even organized crime has a code of honor that they will do no harm to the wives and children of their adversaries.

This is Not a Tax Case

Doreen was not convicted of falsifying a tax return, tax evasion or even willful failure to file. Doreen was convicted because she refused to declare that she believes certain of her earnings are the taxable variety! A judge ordered her to declare a belief that those earnings are taxable, and Doreen, who believes otherwise and had said so under oath, rightfully refused. She was then charged with contempt of court for disobeying a judge's orders, which is the charge upon which she was convicted.

If Doreen goes to prison for refusing to perjure herself, then God help us all...for one day each of us will surely be imprisoned for the crime of behaving in a lawfully, morally and virtuous manner. Each of us and future generations will be confronted with a situation where we will need to decide whether to be true to ourselves or subjugate ourselves to those who would enslave us.

Join the Resistance to Tyranny

Let's Pack the Courtroom
Freedom and Justice Demand Active Participation!