RE: Response to Notice CP-2000-Summary of Proposed Changes to 2011 Form 1040
Social Security Number: [REDACTED]
AUR Control Number: 500020220

To Whom It May Concern:

I received an unsigned Notice CP-2000 dated December 31st, 2012 ("Notice"), a copy of which is enclosed, that stated in part on paragraph 1: "The income and payment information we have on file from sources such as employers or financial institutions doesn't match the information you reported on your tax return".

In the Notice, you requested that I reply by January 30th, 2013, however, after speaking with IRS employee Ann Barton on January 23rd, 2013, I was given a 30 day extension until February 28th, 2013 in order to provide me with more time to reply.

In accordance with section 1 of the Notice on pages 5 & 6, I have checked the box marked "I don't agree with some or all of the changes", indicating my disagreement with the proposed changes to my 2011 Form 1040.

I have enclosed a corrected Form 1099-C as a lawful rebuttal to the erroneous issuance of a 1099-C by Bank Of America N.A., Overdraft Recovery Services; EIN #94-168-7665 ("Bank Of America"), in support of my position that there has not been any forgiveness of debt by Bank Of America, or any other payment made by them to me in the course of their trade or business that would constitute any taxable income in this matter. I expect the IRS to correct its records as to what was reported to them based on this documentation I am submitting.

If the IRS has firsthand knowledge of any amounts reported which are contrary to what I have declared under penalty of perjury, please provide the necessary legal verification to support your position including, but not limited to verification required by Section 6201(d).

My response to this Notice is not to be deemed a waiver of any due process to which I am entitled to under any provision of common, statutory, administrative law or protocol including, but not limited to, that to which your Notice refers.

Prior to any formal or informal due process hearing, I expect and require meaningful clarification as to the nature of, and reason for, any alleged assessment, the process by which any and all relevant determinations reflected in and by your office were arrived at, and anything else pertinent to the matter.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined the facts stated in this letter, including any accompanying documents, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, they are true, correct, and complete.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

2/18/2013

Joseph C. Harrison

Department of the Treasury - Internal Revenue Service

This corrected form 1099-C is submitted to rebut a document known to have been submitted by the party identified above as "Creditor", erroneously alleging a cancellation of debt. There has not been any cancellation of debt, or any other payment by the "Creditor", in the course of their trade or business, to the party above identified above as "Debtor" which would constitute any taxable income or activity under the relevant tax laws. Under penalty of perjury, I declare that I have examined this statement and to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is true, correct, and complete.
