

Ignorance of the law is no excuse.

Informed Americans use their lawful power of the purse to restrain a runaway federal government and restore liberty.

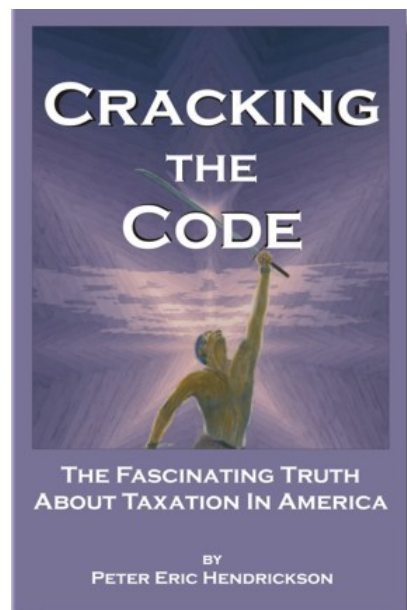

Working for a living in the private sector is a common right that cannot be reached by an indirect excise (privilege) tax such as the federal income tax.

Become informed.

Uphold the Law.

Restore liberty.

Read this book:

LostHorizons.com

Ignorance of the law is no excuse.

Informed Americans use their lawful power of the purse to restrain a runaway federal government and restore liberty.

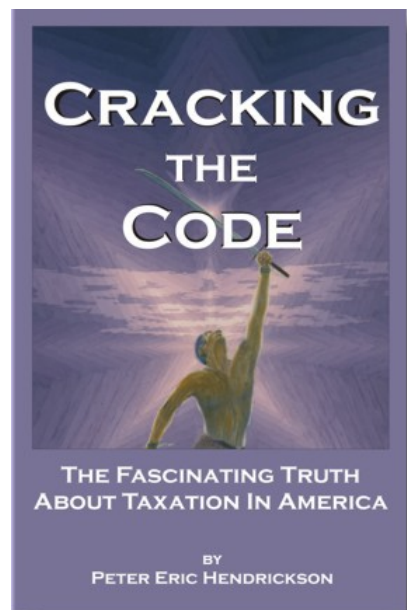

Working for a living in the private sector is a common right that cannot be reached by an indirect excise (privilege) tax such as the federal income tax.

Become informed.

Uphold the Law.

Restore liberty.

Read this book:

LostHorizons.com

Ignorance of the law is no excuse.

Informed Americans use their lawful power of the purse to restrain a runaway federal government and restore liberty.

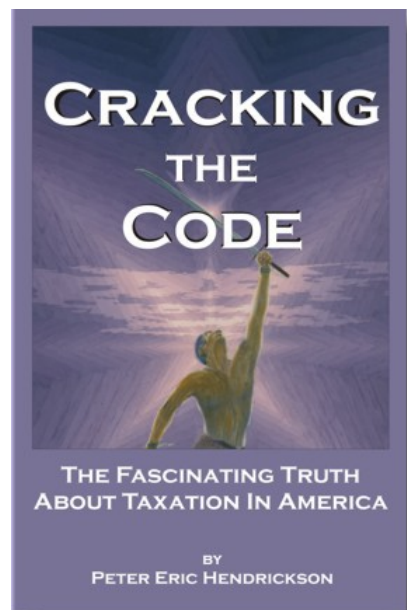

Working for a living in the private sector is a common right that cannot be reached by an indirect excise (privilege) tax such as the federal income tax.

Become informed.

Uphold the Law.

Restore liberty.

Read this book:

LostHorizons.com

Ignorance of the law is no excuse.

Informed Americans use their lawful power of the purse to restrain a runaway federal government and restore liberty.

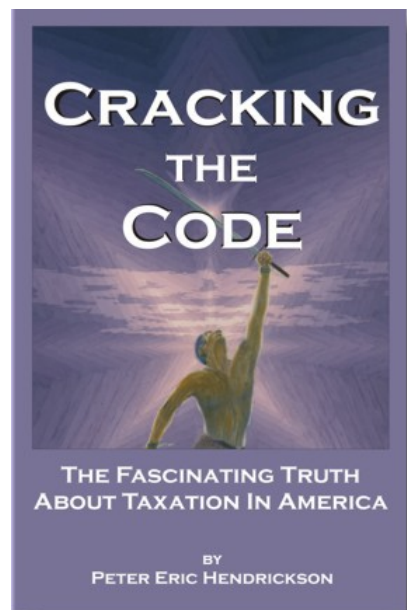

Working for a living in the private sector is a common right that cannot be reached by an indirect excise (privilege) tax such as the federal income tax.

Become informed.

Uphold the Law.

Restore liberty.

Read this book:

LostHorizons.com