Message about your 2016 tax return

We're holding your refund until we finish reviewing your tax return

We've received your 2016 tax return, and are reviewing it to verify:

- the income you reported on your return,
- the income tax withholding amounts you reported on your return,
- the claims for tax credits you made on your return,
- the withholding claimed on your Social Security benefits,
- the household help you claimed, and/or
- the Schedule C income you claimed.

We'll hold your refund until we finish our review.

What you need to do

You do not need to take any action at this time.

We'll review your return.

Generally, we deal directly with you or your duly authorized representative. However, we sometimes talk with other persons to verify information we've received. If we do contact other persons, we'll generally need to tell them limited information, such as your name. The law prohibits us from disclosing any more information than is necessary to obtain or verify the information we're seeking. Our need to contact other persons may continue as long as we're reviewing your return. If we do contact other persons, you have a right to request a list of those contacted.

If you didn't file a tax return for 2016

Someone else may have used your personal information to file this return. Please complete and sign Form 14039 (Identity Theft Affidavit), and mail it to us along with the requested documents. You can find this form online at www.irs.gov.

If you need assistance, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Taxpayer Advocate Service

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS that can help protect your taxpayer rights. We can offer you help if your tax problem is causing a hardship, or you've tried but haven't been able to resolve your problem with the IRS. If you qualify for our assistance, which is always free, we will do everything possible to help you. Visit taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov or call 1-877-777-4778.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITC)

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) are independent from the IRS. LITCs serve individuals whose income is below a certain level and who need to resolve a tax problem with the IRS. LITCs provide professional representation before the IRS or in court on audits, appeals, tax collection disputes, and other issues for free or for a small fee. For more information and to find an LITC near you, see the LITC page at www.taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov/litcmap or IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List. This publication is also available by calling the IRS at 1-800-829-3676 or visiting your local IRS office.
